

Mancos United Methodist Church

Minutes from June 13, 2021 meeting

1. Meeting was opened with a prayer.
2. Discussion about what was lost (9 AM in person service, being in the sanctuary) and gained (extended participants thru zoom) from the Pandemic.
 - Discussed moving forward for future when it is not possible to meet outside. How to accommodate unvaccinated people and people with medical issues.
 - Rosa is not vaccinated and that presents unforeseen challenges regarding sanctuary and the use of the fellowship hall.
 - possible use of disposable communion kits
- 3 Finance
 - Discussion about investments and how they should be used. Should we start investing more in green energy? How much should be allocated for operating expenses? Craig will ask the finance committee to come up with one or two proposals for future discussion. Dana can put together a financial history if needed.
 - the PPP loan that Mary Porter applied for was granted. It is a $10-$12K forgivable loan.
4. PPR committee has suggested that Craig should take a sabbatical. He is thinking of taking it next summer to hike the Colorado Trail
5. Transfer service will be August 29th. Campground will be reserved for the 28th for those who want to camp.
6. Meeting was closed with a prayer.
